Sin is Solved

“Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more.” And where these have been forgiven, sacrifice for sin is no longer necessary.

Hebrews 10:17-18

We all have _____ (you are not alone) and in this life we will always have _____.

Man’s _____ problem is sin. By nature, man is a sinner; and by choice, we prove that our nature is sinful.

Sin is falling short of God’s _____ of righteousness.

The problem with sin (falling short of God’s righteous standard) is one of _____ or death.

For the Hebrew, the _____ of following Christ set them up for persecution, the loss of property and privilege, and could possibly even cost them their lives.

For the Christ follower, Jesus has _____ our biggest problem and therefore He can be trusted with our lesser problems.

The Message of Forgiveness

1. We have a problem with sin, even if we are ritualistically _____.
2. Our problem of sin has been _____ by the person and work of Jesus Christ.
3. There exists no longer a _____ to work our way to God. It is finished.

Jot down a brief answer to the following four questions

Quick Review

1. Reflecting on this week's sermon, is there any principle or insight that stands out as being particularly helpful, insightful or difficult to grasp?

2. Explain why, since God established the Old Covenant regulations of sacrifice, He is not pleased with them. (Amos 5:21-22, Isaiah 1:11, Ps 51:16, 1 Sam 15:22)

3. Summarize in one sentence the collective message of the following verses: 2 Chronicles 6:36, Job 4:17, Psalm 14:3, Proverbs 20:9, Romans 3:10-12. Why or why not is your statement a generally accepted truth?

4. The author quotes Psalm 4:6-8 in which the phrase appears, "but my ears you have opened." In considering the ear, read Exodus 21:1-6 and explain the significance of what this means.
