

Course Correction

That night the king could not sleep; so he ordered the book of the chronicles, the record of his reign, to be brought in and read to him. It was found recorded there that Mordecai had exposed Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway, who had conspired to assassinate King Xerxes. "What honor and recognition has Mordecai received for this?" the king asked. "Nothing has been done for him," his attendants answered. The king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the palace to speak to the king about impaling Mordecai on the pole he had set up for him. His attendants answered, "Haman is standing in the court." "Bring him in," the king ordered. Esther 6:1-5

God at Work

1. Sometimes God will keep you from _____ to speak into your life.
2. God can direct the form of your _____ to bring about His will.
3. Specific _____ can bring about the thoughts that God wants you to consider.
4. God's delays are not God's _____.
5. God can time things to the exact _____.

Humility keeps you from experiencing the embarrassment _____ brings.

When you know your way is wrong, it is time to _____.

Bringing the Message to Life

Jot down a brief answer to the following questions

1. Reflecting on this week's sermon, is there any principle or insight that stands out as being particularly helpful, insightful or difficult to grasp?
2. The five points under "God at Work" illustrate God's amazing providence of His people. Which of these five points have you seen at work in your own life? Explain.
3. Read Luke 14:1-11. What is Jesus trying to teach us about presumption?
4. Explain what real humility looks like? What does it not look like? Provide examples.
5. What is the only thing Haman could have done to spare his fate when he was taken to Esther's second banquet?